

Grand Power Appoints New, Independent Director to Board - Mr. Jones Chu brings capital market experience and financing expertise -

Calgary, Alberta and Hong Kong, China – February 18, 2010 – Grand Power Logistics Group Inc. (TSX-V: GPW), a China-based provider of logistics services, today announced that Mr. Jones Chu has been appointed to the Company's Board as an independent director. Mr. Chu has more than 15 years of capital markets experience, with a special focus on derivatives trading. Mr. Chu is also a Director and shareholder of Grand Power Logistics Development Co. (GPLD), a subsidiary owned 70 percent by Grand Power Logistics and a group of private investors.

“As a long-time supporter and Company shareholder, Mr. Chu is a welcomed addition to our board,” said Ricky Chiu, President and CEO of Grand Power Logistics Inc. “His knowledge of the capital markets will be an important asset, providing counsel to our subsidiary in its efforts to raise financing required for the development of the Yangshan International Container Transit Logistics Park.”

As announced previously, Grand Power's subsidiary, Grand Power Logistics Development Co. (“GPLD”), has signed a memorandum of understanding with the Shengsi County People's Government to develop the Yangshan International Container Logistics Park. Grand Power intends to fund the development by raising debt and equity at the GPLD subsidiary level, with none of the financing or dilution expected at the public company level.

Mr. Chu graduated from the City University of Hong Kong with a Bachelor of Science in Finance as well as a Master of Science in Financial Engineering. Mr. Chu is currently Equity Derivatives Director with a leading securities firm in Hong Kong.
